Bush-Irvine.

Mr. Ben Bush, of Winchester, a well-known carpenter, and Miss Myrtle Irvine, of this county, were married in Paris last Saturday by the county clerk of Bourbon county. They returned to Winchester, where they will make their home.

Look Out, Madison!

Representative Langley will introduce two Good Roads bills, one of which provides for a highway from Ashland to Pound Gap and the other for a highway from Winchester to Pound Gap. The first will follow The Big Sandy and the second the waters of the Kentucky river.

An inexpensive gift—50 cts.—and one that will surely be appreciated, is an enlargement from a favorite Kodak negative, made by McGaughey, the Photographer. 8-1f

Bull Kills Negro.

Brown Seals, a well-known Nicholasville negro, who worked on the farm of Robert Simpson near town, was killed by a vicious bull. Seals went out to feed the mules and failing to return, Mr. Simpson went to investigate and found the negro dead, with the bull standing over him.

Garrard County News.

Judge Hardin has appointed Sautley Hughes as trustee of the jury fund for Garrard county. Mr. Hughes is a very promising young man and the appointment is a popular one.

The board of supervisors of Garrard county is composed of Tom Wherritt, George Smith and W. T. West. The Lancaster Record says that the personnel of the board could not be improved upon.

Circuit Court in Garrard county adjourned last Saturday week Judge Hardin appointed James Burnside, T. T. Burdette and R. H. Watson as jury commissioners, who will select the jurors for 1915.

W. T. Neal died at his home in Buckeye Tuesday, Dec. 15, at 6 p. m.

Alfred Martin Dead.

Alfred R. Martin, a retired merchant of Winchester, died Dec. 13th, after an illness of only a few days, aged 75 years. He was perhaps one of the best known citizens of Winchester and at one time held the office of councilman of that city.

He was a native of Clark county. His last wife was Miss Bettie Moberley, of Madison county, who is the sister of Mr. John Moberley, of Brassfield. Mr. Martin was a prominent church worker and a deacon in the First Baptist church. He was a Confederate soldier, having served under Gen. John H. Morgan, and took part in some of the noted battles of the Civil war.

Dr. D. J. Williams, of this county, was one of the pall-bearers.

CATARRH TROUBLE ENDED BY HYOMEL

An Inexpensive Easily Used and Most Effective Remedy.

Surely try Hyomel, nature's harmless remedy for catarrh, colds, asthma, bronchitis, or croup of children—a treatment that is pleasant to use, and a certain cure.

Hyomel is not a cure-all but a specific for distressing catarrh and similar ailments. You breathe Hyomel so that its antiseptic medication at once reaches the irritated and diseased tissues, healing and soothing the sore spots.

Get a Hyomel outfit, which contains an inhaler and bottle of liquid, at once. Put twenty drops of Hyomel into the inhaler and breathe it a few times during the day. There is no treatment so satisfying for it instantly opens the stopped-up air passages—you breathe freely, the unseen discharges from the nose stop, and dull headaches vanish—even the worst cases respond quickly. Adv. dec 23-20.

An Ill Wind.

Yes, it's pretty cold—but just think! You don't have to hunt a cool spot on the front porch, with a palm leaf fan and keep yourself busy fighting flies and mosquitoes. Some consolation, anyhow!

Death of Mrs. Witt.

Mrs. W. S. Witt, of Estill county, died at her home December 5th, after a long illness. She was about 55 years old and left a husband and seven children. She was a most excellent woman. Mrs. Witt was a sister of Benjamin Wilcox, also known here.

To The Farmers.

We begin next week a series of letters to the farmers, written by one of our most prominent farmers, Mr. Green Clay. We are always willing to help the farmer and these letters will be valuable to them. Be sure and get them and read all of the letters.

Tell us the farm news. Call 659 and our stenographer will take it down. You may think you are bothering us, but we want to be "bothered" this way. Call 659 and bother us a little. Ed.

John W. Ballard has returned from a trip to Cincinnati, where he sold a lot of stock.

Little Charlie Fortune had the misfortune to break his leg the other day while riding on the rear part of a buggy.

Farm Demonstrator Geoffrey Morgan was at home last Sunday and spent the day with his family.

Much tobacco has been stripped in the community, but as yet none has been marketed. The quality is very good, with the exception of the last cutting.

The Climax-Madisonian is the leading paper in this section. Now is the time to get on the list. Thank you.

BEREA.

Miss Bertie Norvell visited relatives and friends in town a few days during last week.

J. A. Adams is confined to his bed with the grippe.

We have been having very cold weather, as you probably know. It registered 12 degrees below zero here on Tuesday night, 15th.

Dr. Davis' new house on Centre street is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy.

The ladies of the Missionary Society of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Dr. Davis last week.

J. M. Kinnaird, traveling salesman, whose territory is in the West, is with his family for the holidays.

There have been several sleighing parties out in the past week, enjoying the heavy fall of snow.

UNION CITY.

Little Green B. Noland, who has been ill so long, is showing signs of improvement.

R. E. Miller has moved into his new blacksmith shop and is now ready to serve his friends.

W. C. Griggs and J. M. Risk have each filled his ice-house during the recent cold spell.

The farmers in this vicinity are busy getting their tobacco stripped and ready for market.

Mr. Colby Shearer, of Illinois, spent a couple of weeks with his sister, Mrs. John Ford.

Uncle Jesse Kirby, it is reported, is down with pneumonia.

Gilbert Tracy, who has been ill for three weeks with pneumonia, is steadily improving we understand.

Mrs. Rosa Roberts is making preparations to move to her farm, after having kept the County House six or seven years.

Charles Soper, of Moberley, will take her place.

Mr. Dady Berry, of Illinois, will spend the holidays with relatives here.

The Union City high school gave a very creditable entertainment Saturday night last. The play depicted scenes of Colonial times.

Evidences of the nearness of Christmas may be seen on every hand. Children are beginning to see visions of distended hosiery, filled with good things by their patron saint. Every boy is beginning to manifest a spirit of meekness, a spirit of obedience. A bright halo may be seen resting upon his brow just now, and who would be so unfeeling as to destroy his happy anticipations? Who having reached mature years does not look back upon his childhood days and remember the happiness of the days preceding this happy event? And when will all men who believe that this glad day commemorates the birth of the Prince of Peace observe the occasion in a fitting manner and cease to make the season one of dissipation and debauchery?

Prompt Action Will Stop Your Cough.

When you first catch a cold (often indicated by a sneeze or a cough) break it up at once. The idea that "it does not matter" often leads to serious complications. The remedy which immediately and easily penetrates the lining of the throat is the kind demanded. Dr. King's New Discovery soothes the irritation, loosens the phlegm. You feel better at once. "It seemed to reach the very spot of my Cough" is one of many honest testimonials. 50c at your Druggist. Adv. Dec.

Lest They Forget.

Hunt out the little lame girl.
The poor boy who is blind;
Hunt out the weary widow
Who thinks the world unkind;
Search down among the hovels
Where gladness seldom strays,
And teach the doubting people
There still are Christmas days.

You have been busy planning
To spread your gift afar,
To add to your love tokens
Where joy and comforts are,
But have you in your gladness
Bestowed one kindly thought
On those who sit in darkness,
Whose crusts are dearly bought?

Your heart is full of kindness,
You hear the anthems sung,
And gaze up at the windows
Where ribboned wreaths are hung;
You've heard the sweet old story
With reverence retold—
But there are hungry children
Where all is dark and cold.

Hunt out the little lame girl,
The poor boy who is blind;
Hunt out the weary widow
Who thinks the world unkind;
Go down among the victims
Of chance and greed and crime,
And cause them to remember
That this is Christmas time.

Absolutely harmless. Samples on request. At all druggists, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Vick Chemical Co., Greensboro, N. C.

In Bad.

The depositors of the Alexander Bank at Paris, who have signed petitions asking for his release, will probably be prosecuted for contempt of court. The Commonwealth's attorney and county attorney say that they will bring the matter to the attention of the grand jury. They claim that it is compounding a felony and not only is a criminal offense, but is also a contempt of court.

WHEN THE KIDNEYS FAIL

Richmond People Have Found That Ill Health Follows.

Do you ever feel that you simply can't go any further—that you must have rest from that lame and aching back—relief from the constant, dead-tired feeling—freedom from those stabbing, darting pains? Likely your kidneys are worn and need help. The kidneys work night and day, removing uric acid from the blood and other waste created by expenditure of strength and energy. Naturally a life of unusual activity doubles the duties of the kidneys and in time the strain generally tells. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought new strength to thousands of bad backs and quick relief to weakened kidneys, so users say. Let them do the same for you. Convincing proof of merit in Richmond testimony.

Mrs. E. Roberts, 405 Laurel street, Richmond, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with very good results and we recommend them strongly. One of us had pains in the back and the action of the kidneys was irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills were used, being procured at Middleton's Drug Store, and they gave great relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Roberts recommends. Foster-Milburn Co., Proprietors, Buffalo, New York.
